Teaching Procedures

Pre-instruction: Make audio tape by reading each step of the task analysis and inserting a 'beep'.

1. Explain significance and use of tape-recorded recipes.
2. Instruct student to start the recorder by depressing and holding down the remote switch.
3. Instruct student to stop the recorder by releasing the remote switch each time a "beep" is heard.
4. Instruct student to follow the food preparation step just stated on the tape.
5. If student does not begin performing the step correctly after playing the taped instructions, initiate a least-to-most prompt sequence beginning with verbal prompt (e.g. Tear open the top of the box.").
6. If verbal prompt is ineffective, pair verbal prompt with physical guidance.
7. If verbal prompt with physical guidance is ineffective, pair the verbal prompt with hand-over-hand manipulation.
8. After completing the step, student depresses and holds down the remote switch to play the next step.
9. Continue instruction until student performs all steps correctly.

Evaluation

Evaluate the student's performance by collecting data on the percentage of steps correct on the task analyses.
