

Resource	Contact Information	IEP Stage	Suggested Grade Levels	Materials Included
Can I go to the IEP meeting?	http://www.idonline.org/article/6304	Planning	None Suggested	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Questions students should ask themselves to learn more about their strengths
IEP Template	See Konrad & Test (2004)	Drafting	Middle School	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Worksheets for students to complete to assist with drafting their IEP
Helping students develop their IEPs: Student guide and Technical assistance guide	https://www.imdetermined.org/quick-links/student-involvement/	Drafting	Students Across Various Grade Levels	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Templates for planning student involvement in IEP meeting Resources for parents, educators, and students
IEP portfolio template	http://lifeafterieps.com/transitions-portfolio/	Drafting; Meeting	Middle/ High School Students	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Links to several variations of portfolios, some more detailed than others IEP Portfolio Template for student use as a guide to lead IEP meeting Links to a fillable word document for student-led IEPs
How to help students lead their IEP meetings	See Mason, McGahee-Kovac, & Johnson (2004)	Meeting	None Suggested	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Teacher's guide to instruct students on how to participate in or lead their IEP meeting
Developing student competence in self-directed IEPs	See Torgerson, Miner, & Shen (2004)	Meeting	Secondary	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Teacher's guide to train students to be involved in their IEP meetings
Checklist for student-led	https://www.cgcatogo.com/uploads/1/0/6/7/10675379/student-led-iep-checklist.pdf	Drafting/ Meeting	Checklist with and	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Sample checklist for IEP

IEP meeting	tlediiepchecklistsymbolstix_2_.pdf https://movingstudentsforward.org/agenda-for-student-led-iep/		without visual supports	presentation during a student-led IEP team meeting <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Word version with less visual supports
Student-directed IEP PowerPoint/ Word Doc Template	https://www.seattleu.edu/media/ccts/ccts/student-led_iep_template.ppt https://movingstudentsforward.org/my-iep-meeting-template-by-becky-wilson-hawbaker/	Drafting/ Meeting	None Suggested	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Student-directed IEP template using PowerPoint • Sample IEP using Word template
Activities for students, parents, and IEP teams to support student participation in IEP	http://www.abletrust.org/sites/default/files/media/docs/Activities-Toolkit-2012-2013.doc	Drafting	None Suggested	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Activities for question development, meeting script, role play, practice, interactive games, and other activities related to student participation in IEP meetings

Full references for articles above:

Konrad, M. & Test, D. W. (2004). Teaching middle school students with disabilities to use an IEP template. Career Development for Exceptional Individuals, 27, 101-124.

Mason, C. Y., McGahee-Kovac, M., & Johnson, L. (2004). How to help students lead their IEP meetings. Teaching Exceptional Children, 36(3), 18-24.

Torgerson, C. W., Miner, C. A., & Shen, H. (2004). Developing student competence in self-directed IEPs. Intervention in School and Clinic, 39, 162-167.